

include nyc BUILDING AN INCLUSIVE SOCIETY BENEFITING EVERYONE

INCLUDEnyc believes that by empowering and educating young people with disabilities, adult caregivers, and professionals, and engaging the broader community, we can build an inclusive society that benefits everyone.

INCLUDEnyc provides timely, empathetic, person-centered, accurate, and clear:

- Direct assistance and training for young people with disabilities and their families and professionals in education, health, and human services
- Community outreach and public awareness

To drive an increase of:

- Knowledge and confidence by young people, adult caregivers, and professionals about disability support and services
- Community awareness and engagement with INCLUDEnyc and disability issues
- Attention on policies supporting young people with disabilities from government officials, public influencers, and allies

Leading to:

- Purposeful actions by young people and adult caregivers to address needs and achieve personal goals
- More robust personal support networks within the community
- Awareness of people with disabilities by the public and media
- Increased inclusion and reduced stigma

And ultimately elevating:

- Access to and utilization of support and services for young people with disabilities and their families
- Education, employment, and community engagement for young people with disabilities
- Equity and access for everyone with disabilities
